A Note From Pastor Andrew

This past weekend the Gookin family trekked over to Eaton Rapids and in turn Lansing for our annual tradition, the Color Run. This was actually the first time for me to make it over there, and though I didn't participate, I got to hear about it from Katie and Emily. Like many of the runs or marathons, there was method to the madness. The raising of money for the Sparrow Hospital Foundation. They raise money to help the Sparrow Corporation provide their services to more of the "world," at least one hopes. There were tens of thousands of people there to run or walk, be doused in colored powder and glitter, and to stay that way as long as they can. People pay to do this, they pay to get dirty and help a charity. I know at least five of them, and they keep returning to do it year after year because they love it.

Just think if we were this excited about the Lord, all the things he's done and does. Can you imagine the possibilities? What can you do to make that a reality?
